Dear Parents:

Your child has entered in the 2017 Georgia Educational Technology Fair (GaETF), produced by the Georgia Educational Technology Consortium(c) (GaETC). The Georgia Educational Technology Consortium(c) is requesting that photographs be taken of students at the Georgia Educational Technology Fair and be shared on their web site.

In an effort to promote the Georgia Educational Technology Fair and publicize its success, GaETF will be developing promotional photos of students, parents, schools and districts to tell their stories of how they have achieved their goals or provide alternatives and resources. The photographs captured from the fair will be posted on the GaETF web site to showcase the students at the fair.
